

ABOUT JOSHUA

For most of his life, Joshua Lozoff has been captivating audiences through film, television, and live appearances. His keynote presentation, The Magic of Showing Up, has been featured at conferences, seminars, and corporate events across the country; blending engaging storytelling with powerful takeaways.

Joshua toured as a magician for years, bringing his show Life is Magic to theaters and corporate events across the country. His appearance on Penn & Teller: Fool Us has racked up millions of views.

Prior to that, he had a successful acting career, with roles in films including Clueless and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, among others. His most notable role was as Gino Tortelli on the hit TV series Cheers!

After years of performing, Joshua transitioned to speaking to share what he had learned about connection, presence, and authenticity. Drawing from his experiences engaging audiences as both an actor and magician, he now helps others build stronger relationships, communicate more effectively, and create meaningful moments in both work and life.
